Educator Meeting

June 16

Free Little Library

Did you notice what looks like a big, white birdhouse as you come up the church driveway? It is a 'Little Free Library,' sponsored by the 'Life with Jesus' adult faith formation class, Thrivent Financial, and you!

How are you a part of this? If you have gently used books for adults and children with which you are willing to part, please place them in the bin in the narthex labeled "Litte Free Library." The class will then stamp the inside cover of each book with 'Zion Lutheran Church, Sat. 5:30 service, Sun. 8:00 and 10:00' as a way of outreach to the community. (Of course, you are welcome to browse the library as well.)

Our intent is to allow anyone who wants, to take a book and keep it; pass the book on to someone else; or, return it to our library box. (No need to replace it with another book.) Adult books about faith, questions about faith, God, Jesus, the Holy Spirit, prayer, books of the Bible, Bibles, devotionals, spiritual struggles, encouragement, etc., (you get the idea) will be most appreciated! All sorts of children's books, too!

A thank you goes out to Mary Jane McCluskey for the idea and registering the Little Free Library, to Lee Hipkiss and Barry Anderson for building and installing it, and to you for donating books!
